Footnotes

CENTRINA stalked from afar, fell back proceeding down the backstretch as the tempo quickened during the second split, made up the lost ground by the half mile pole, departed the backstretch four wide and closed the gap, turned for home and was called upon, took over and emerged from the furlong grounds with a comfortable advantage, turned back the sole stretch threat to preserve it. GLORY IN MOTION saved ground until the five-sixteenths pole and rallied for the place. G. A. EMPRESS swung three wide into the lane and flashed late energy to secure the show. I DREAMT I WAS made a three wide bid under her own power to join up with the early pacesetter, vied for command from the outside being rated, grabbed the lead briefly coming to the quarter pole, was soon overhauled and steadily weakened. LADY YELLOW TAIL gave chase towards the two path, was under a drive by the five-sixteenths marker to no avail. MISSYSMOONLITMAGIC disputed the pace from the rail while not being asked for her best, wilted.
