CHARLOTT HUMOR was reserved early, steadied and dropped back at the half mile pole, rapidly gained while five wide at the quarter pole then wore down the leaders to win going away. ALL THE BASES raced just off the pace while saving ground, awaited room on the turn, angled three wide splitting horses at the quarter pole then closed late from outside to gain the place. COUNT CATAMOUNT set the pace along the rail into midstretch and yielded late. BIMINI stalked three wide to the top of the stretch and lacked a late response. MASTER pressed the pace in the two path into upper stretch and tired. TIPPITY TAP checked at the start and never reached contention while drifting six wide at the quarter pole.
