Footnotes

FIRE THE BULLET contently tracked the early activity from the inside under a good hold, came off the rail midway around the turn, ranged up to the front runners after now being asked for some run, was placed under a stiffer drive turning for home, bested a pair of rivals to take over just past the eighth pole and edged clear while being kept busy to the end. GRAND TERROR unseated the rider and ran off during the post parade, left the gate in good order, grabbed the lead soon after the start, showed the way well off the inside, all the while being urged along, entered the lane with a pair of opponents ready to pounce, offered stiff resistance before yielding midstretch, then continued on willingly to earn the place. BUFFALO TSUNAMI came in at the start, bumping MR. INTERNATIONAL into STAR OVER DUBAI, vied for the lead from the two path, gave way. KARAKORUM BUDMAN bested the rest. STAR OVER DUBAI bumped at the start, was put to a prolonged drive and tired. MR. INTERNATIONAL bumped at the start, raced wide and folded. JUST ABIT SANDY was outrun and eased.
