Footnotes

TAHOE TIGRESS was quickly sent over to the rail, rode it for nearly six furlongs, slipped into the two path a couple of jumps before arriving at the quarter pole, challenged in earnest between rivals and poked a head in front as the stretch run commenced, drew well clear under a hand drive. HALDANE chased the pacesetter from off the inside, had the winner angle to the outside and take over the two path prior to the quarter pole, was squeezed back a bit spinning into the lane as the one of the middle members of a group of four frontrunners, fell back steadily on the top one proceeding down the lane, but managed to wear down the former pacesetter for second. NEWBIE was taken hold after ducking inward at the start, got put to light hand encouragement and rushed up to take the advantage, was switched over to a firm hold by the pilot soon afterwards, got pounced upon by the winner heading for the top of the lane, yielded readily, then lost out on place honors in the very late stages. MISS DA POINT tipped into the three path at the top of the bend, came a slightly wider into the stretch, backed away. NECESSARY LUXURY got away awkwardly after tossing her head up at the break, raced from well off the inside throughout, swung four wide into the stretch, had no offering to give and tired.
