Footnotes

CALLMETONY contently stalked the pacesetter, ducked over to the inside leaving the five-sixteenths pole, turned for home with clear sailing along the inside, launched a rail rally to grab the front and edged away, driving. MISSILE MOTOR chased three wide, gained a narrow and short-lived lead in midstretch, soon surrendered to the top one, held well for second. DIGGER KARAKORUM was hustled away from the starting gate to assume command, showed the way, rated in the two path, with the runner up applying some pressure all the while, got set down entering the stretch, held stubbornly during the ensuing furlong before weakening into the third slot. ZIO TONY raced three wide and failed to muster up the needed closing punch. FEROCIOUS WON saved ground throughout. FRENCH TRANSITION off to a sluggish beginning, raced along the outside and trailed.
