Footnotes

TOUGH TIZ'S SIS sat patiently placed in the three path off the pacesetter during the opening half, advanced on her own courage to take over the lead nearing the far turn, extended her margin during the run around that bend while still not being asked for her best, responded well after being roused to further increase her advantage, then coasted home by daylight while being kept busy to the wire. COPPER STATE reserved off the rail, came home willingly for the place. STAGE LUCK within striking distance while racing along the outside, had no rally. MIRACULOUS MISS devoid of early foot, displayed a mild rally by tiring rivals. RITE MOMENT took the lead soon after the start, set the early fractions while racing off the rail, offered feeble resistance when the top one drew along side nearing the far turn, steadily tired thereafter. SPRING WALTZ was never in contention. LITTLE BELLE was no threat. BOCA GRANDE outrun early, tired badly.
