Footnotes

LADY WHIMSICAL sat patiently reserved just to the outside of the leader during the run down the backstretch, ranged up without need of encouragement departing the half mile pole, reached even terms with ALLA PRIMA with three furlongs to go, wrested a clear advantage by the quarter pole, felt the presence of the runner up about a sixteenth later, was put to a drive approaching the eighth pole and held sway. ALPHA CENTAURI ducked over to the inside at the half mile pole, bided her time taking the inside route during the run around the bend, came back outward late on the turn, angled five wide into the lane, with GRACE'N STYLE perched just behind her, gained readily on the leader, with neither rival having been called upon as of yet, was given her cue almost simultaneously with the winner, cut into that foe's margin during the remainder of the stretch run, but apparently ran out of real estate. GRACE'N STYLE off the inside, fanned five wide into the lane and displayed a mild kick en route for the show. WILD BANSHEE saved ground, was forced to steady in traffic from about the quarter pole to about the eighth pole, checked before altering course to escape the predicament, was put to encouragement, too late to do any serious damage. YESTERDAY was rank, fighting the bit at various points down the backstretch, unleashed a four wide middle move to reach contention entering the turn, but could not sustain the bid after turning for home. MAUX MONEY chased three wide and folded. STEP LIVELY raced along the outside and was outrun. ALLA PRIMA established command under her own courage, was put to the test coming to the three-eighths pole, offered brief resistance before yielding and steadily tired thereafter.
