Footnotes

SARATOGA SNACKS pressed the issue from the three path, drew directly alongside B SHANNY in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, edged away and was in possession of a slim advantage as the field headed into the stretch, was almost at the three-sixteenths marker when asked for a response, gave it instantly, scampering away to a wider lead by the furlong marker, maintained all of it the rest of the way, being primarily hand urged. SIR BOND swerved in at the start, was patiently handled by the pilot and soon put back on proper course, rode the rail before slipping into the two path midway on the turn, placing himself directly abreast of RELOAD at that juncture, got taken wider still until swinging from the four path into the stretch and doing so under having already been set down, finished willingly but had to settle for being second best. GRAYDAR chased the front runners from near the three path, got called upon at the top of the lane, and got outfinished. CHIEF ENERGY sat a loose pocket and came up empty. RELOAD three wide at the three-eighths pole, made no serious bids. B SHANNY rated in the two path for nearly three-quarters, gave way once put to the test. THUNDER CHIEF saved ground, cut the corner into the lane having already felt the whip, never reached a contending position. DESERT STORM raced along the outside and offered little.
