Footnotes

LEMON CREAM PIE was well placed, closed the gap on the turn, opened a clear advantage in midstretch and held sway under left hand urging. PICOU saved ground to the turn, angled out nearing the quarter pole and finished willingly to gain the place. RESCUE SQUAD was rated in midpack for six furlongs, rallied three wide in upper stretch and finished well to gain a share. BROTHER NICK opened a long lead after going a half, set the pace into upper stretch and weakened. LIME RICKEY raced within striking distance in the two path to the top of the stretch and lacked a strong closing response. RETRIEVER failed to mount a serious rally while between horses. ROCKETING RETURNS chased the pacesetter to the turn and tired. PICTURAL was never a factor. CROWN POINT raced wide and lacked a rally.
