Footnotes

VILLANESCA lunged at the break, came under light coaxing tracking the front from the three path in close range, ranged up to the leader at the quarter pole set down for the drive, steadily gained on the front through the length of the stretch, battled on between rivals through the final sixteenth to get up at the wire and prevail in a determined effort. GREED AND FEAR bumped both sides at the start, settled towards the rear just off the inside, came under urging at the three-eighths pole, spun four wide in upper stretch, kicked home readily with good energy the outermost of a trio heads apart inside the final sixteenth and just missed. IT'S SATURDAY NITE set a pressured pace along the inside, shook free of her main pace foe straightening away, was roused bracing for a challenge at the three-sixteenths, inched away to the eighth pole safely, got confronted by a pair inside the final sixteenth, kept on stubbornly fighting heads apart with those rivals to the wire but got caught on the line. FLASHY IN PINK broke in at the start bumping GREED AND FEAR before being taken off that foe, settled just in behind the pace from the two path, remained patiently handled in behind, got set down at the head of the lane and offered no kick. CLASSIC POINT pressed the pace while two to three wide, came under urging at the three-eighths pole to intensify the pressure, remained a forward factor until straightening away, got shaken off at that juncture and weakened in the stretch. ALEXANDRA'S GRACE broke out at the start bumping lightly with her entry mate, saved ground towards the rear, came under urging at the five-sixteenths and offered no response. OTTAVIANO hustled from the start, chased the front while four wide through the turn and tired.
