Footnotes

UNACCOUNTABLE sat reserved along the outside in the initial stages, was guided over to the rail coming to the end of the backstretch and took the inside route around the far turn, responded well when asked for some run once well settled into upper stretch, gained ground readily, angled out and split rivals in mid lane, took over for good soon afterwards, then dug in with good determination to stave off the runner up. CONCERT STAGE saved ground until the five-sixteenths pole, came home willingly en route for the place. FREE BRAVE cut the corner into the lane and rallied mildly to take the show. VEILED PROPHET unhurried from off the rail, got tipped into the three path in upper stretch, lacked the necessary response. KIPPERS N' EGGS quickly established control, set the splits well rated from the inside, edged away from the others during the later stages of the run around the far turn, turned for home and was let out, felt the presence of the top two finishers after going an additional furlong, didn't have wait much longer to be put to the test by them, succumbed and weakened. PIRATE'S LEGEND strung out three wide on the opening turn, was one path wider for most of the way around the subsequent one, got to a long had drive shortly before reaching the end of the backstretch, folded. REIGN OF KINGS rated stalking from the two path until the half mile pole, was asked to pick up the pace, left the five-sixteenths pole three wide and being asked for run, tired. SPECIAL ACTION three wide on the opening bend, rushed up to become the prime pursuer down the backstretch, stayed in that role until midpoint on the far turn and gave way.
