Footnotes

GREY FOOSE made light contact with SAY LANCELOT at the start, went on to take charge in short order, carved the pace, deliberately kept off the inside and well rated, sat chilly as an energetically urged MASTER SPLASH rapidly closed in late on the turn, responded positively when given his cue leaving the quarter pole, dug in well enough to successfully fend off the runner up. ALARMIST chased the front runner placed towards the three path around the turn, picked up the pace after entering the stretch, gained ground readily during the last eighth, but came up short. MASTER SPLASH left the backstretch three wide, was initially coaxed while proceeding on the turn, left the three-eighths pole under much stronger handling and made a menacing run to reach a good striking position by the quarter pole, flattened out leaving the furlong marker. WITHALITTLEBIT bobbed slightly just after the start, departed the backstretch from the four path, was urged along on the turn, failed to make up ground on the front runners during the stretch drive. DREAMALOT took the overland route on the turn to no avail. DICEMAN three wide for most of the way on the turn, tired. SAY LANCELOT bumped lightly at the start, was no factor. JOHN JOE raced along the outside and was outrun. CHAPEL CHIEF three wide, was put to a prolonged drive but had no impact. PEGASUS PAPOU dropped back quickly and trailed.
