Footnotes

GOLD RECORD was steadied after breaking inward at the start, was unhurried during the run down the backstretch, began advancing while racing along the outside nearing the far turn, swung out to the four path to continue her progress forward, sustained her momentum to reach contention leaving the furlong grounds, slowly drew along side the leader during the final furlong, and proved best in the final strides. PUTTINGONTHEMIST chased the pacesetter while racing along the outside, worked her way to the front after being roused in upper stretch, dug in stubbornly when the top one made her presence, grudgingly yielding the advantage a few jumps prior to the end. GOT THAT MONEY took command soon after the start, showed the way until upper stretch, held well once displaced. LORRAINE IN SPAIN stumbled at the start, was unhurried for a half, entered the lane five wide while just to the outside of her entrymate, failed to keep pace during the stretch drive, but continued on willingly to the wire. LADY KAFKA firmly rated while racing off the inside for five furlongs, failed to fire when asked for a response in the lane. STORMY STELLA was no threat. BARBADILLO a forward factor for three quarters, faltered. CLASSOFSIXTYTHREE outrun during the early stages, angled outward to move past a fading foe in upper stretch, ducked back inward once clear, in midstretch, lacked a solid response thereafter. NAN'S STAR bothered at the start, raced wide and was never in the hunt. PALMETO PRINCESS (ARG) raced three wide on the turn and tired. CAT GRACE was through after going five furlongs.
