Footnotes

EA sat reserved along the inside, slipped out after being asked for a response at the five-sixteenths pole, was forced to fan five wide into the lane to clear a wall of rivals directly ahead, resumed his advancement after being straightened away, forged to the front by deep stretch and held on stubbornly to preserve the decision. ELTISH STAR unhurried three wide around the turn, was stacked six wide at the head of the stretch, came home with good energy down the outside of the strip to earn place honors. STAR OF NEW YORK bobbed at the break, was taken in hand after subsequently ducking inward several paths, rushed up into a forward position, without need of encouragement soon afterwards before being guided into the two path, sat reserved from there until nearing the top of the lane, angled three wide into the stretch, was forced to steady in upper stretch when his path was shut down by a pair of rivals, quickly altered course inward, got going again, coming home with good courage to take the show. CHRIS GOT EVEN underwent a three wide pursuit, moved when ready as the field neared the top of the stretch, was in thick of the battle for the lead with an eighth to go before flattening out a bit. UNBRIDLED HEAT patiently stalked the leader from the outside in hand, successfully bid and went past that opponent to take over at the five-sixteenths pole, came under assault from a host of rivals by upper stretch and succumbed. I AIN'T NO SAINT raced along the outside and lacked the necessary stretch response. UNBRIDLED DANGER rated on the lead along the inside, offered little resistance once confronted at the five-sixteenths pole and steadily tired thereafter.
