Footnotes

LUBANGO off to a sharp beginning, tucked along the rail early down the backstretch, had the runner up draw abreast departing the backstretch, with a duel commencing by the seven-sixteenths pole, was asked for some run to keep up the fight a furlong down the road, in direct contrast with the sit chilly tactics being used by the other rival's pilot, began to kick clear nearing the three-sixteenths pole, left the furlong grounds comfortably in front and remained so, under active handling to the end. REGAL STRIKE came out at the break, initiating contact with GRAND STRATEGY, took up a forward position soon afterwards, ranged up to press the issue more intensely upon entering the turn, sparred with the top one for a quarter of a mile, starting from the seven-sixteenths pole, with the rider holding something in reserve until upper stretch, was let out at that point, but came up empty. GRAND STRATEGY bumped at the start, raced four wide on the turn and rallied to grab the show. DAVID THE GREAT tracked the front runners, taking the inside route and kept to a snug hold until the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, was eased off the rail midway on the turn, turned for home three wide, failed to fire after being called upon. GAME TOKEN stalked the pace battle from the two path during the run around the bend, tired. THE MAN UPTOWN raced three wide and was through after going six furlongs.
