Footnotes

QUIET DELIGHT was well placed just behind the early leaders, launched her bid between horses in upper stretch, took charge a furlongs out then edged clear under steady right hand encouragement. MISSING MISS stalked the pacesetter while three wide, edged closer on the turn but couldn't stay with the winner through the stretch. SABRE OF SILVER raced well back along the inside, swung four wide to launch her bid leaving the turn then rallied mildly. MISTY SIXES sprinted clear in the early stages, set the pace along the rail into upper stretch then gave way. MY LADY AVIE trailed throughout and was eased in the late stages.
