Footnotes

GEE LINZ tracked the duel up front while along the inside, shifted four wide at the head of the lane placed to a drive, confronted the leader an eighth from the wire, seized command nearing the sixteenth pole, edged away under a drive to prevail kept to task. CHIFA brushed the near side stall at the start when breaking alert but inwards, set the pace alone briefly from the two path until confronted at the half mile pole, dueled from that station noses apart until shaking free at the three-sixteenths, was confronted at that juncture by the aforementioned rival, yielded the front nearing the sixteenth pole, kept on mildly for the place honors. HEIDI'S HOLIDAY lost her footing at the start, chased inside towards the rear, came under coaxing at the half mile pole, offered no kick through the late stages. MY EMMA stumbled at the start then was brushed by THE PARTY'S HERE who broke inward, came under urging three to four wide through the turn at the seven-sixteenths, spun five wide in upper stretch, offered no serious bid in the stretch. THE PARTY'S HERE broke in at the start brushing lightly with MY EMMA before being taken off, tracked initially from the three path before engaging the leader at the half mile pole, dueled noses apart through the turn, got set down at the quarter pole, remained prominent until nearing the furlong grounds and weakened in the late stages.
