Footnotes

FLASHY GAL settled near the front portion of the midpack soon after the start, was unhurried while making her way down the backstretch, got placed in the three path upon arriving at the far turn, tagged along just to the outside of COARSEGOLD as the pair ranged up towards the pacesetter, turned for home as the widest of the three front runners and got called upon, took over late in the furlong grounds, then edged away, crossing the wire under a vigorous hand ride. ZADINA off the inside, was let out a notch prior to angling out three wide from the five-sixteenths pole, spun into the lane with solid momentum and came home with good energy to procure the place. COARSEGOLD tipped outward early down the backstretch and launched an abbreviated middle move to improve position, doing so primarily under her own power with only the slightest amount of encouragement, was put back to a firmer hold after achieving the goal, had it released a second time and steadily advanced towards the leader, with the top one joining in on the march one path to her outside, challenged in earnest from between foes and appeared to poke a head in front entering the stretch, never held more than a neck lead at most, had it snatched away by the winner nearing the eighth pole, weakened steadily thereafter into the show slot. RUTHIE BLUE EYES matched JUDY G stride for stride briefly down the backstretch before given the front shortly before going the opening quarter, showed the way from the inside being rated and facing only light resistance until late on the second turn, got asked for some run in response to it, yielded soon afterwards and tired. JUDY G was the first to pop out of the starting gate despite bobbling at the break, went head to head with RUTHIE BLUE EYES before getting taken back, tucked into the pocket at the half mile pole, cut the corner under encouragement and backed away. MARY BERNICE along the inside, was urged on the turn to no avail. LET ME ENTERTAIN U off the inside, was outrun. MYPERFECTVALENTINE saved ground and faltered. JET AWAY placed four wide at the head of the stretch, trailed throughout.
