Footnotes

TAKE A WALK unhurried from off the inside down the backstretch, picked up interest upon reaching the turn, swung three wide into the stretch, altered course outward several paths in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole for optimal racing clearance, strode strongly after completing the maneuver, rolling past the competition under a mild hand ride to prove best. SOUND OF DRUMS took the overland route on the turn and displayed good courage to garner place honors. HANGOVER KID grabbed a forward position soon after the start, pressed the issue from the outside, got let out and took shortly before reaching the quartet pole, still held a clear lead with an eighth to go, but with a wall of horses of foes in close proximity and still in hot pursuit, wasn't up to task of fending off the winner, yielding readily at the sixteenth pole, tried valiantly to preserve the place thereafter but came up short. LIVING RIGHT took the inside route, was steadied along stuck in traffic from upper stretch until the furlong marker, finally squeezed his way past OBVIOUSLY TUESDAY, then finished fairly evenly. MAJESTIC RAFFY raced four wide, tried to sweep his into a good striking position only to flatten out. FAST GRIEVANCE was steadied when rank amongst rivals midway down the backstretch, was taken very wide and remained so throughout the remainder of the race, failed to reach a contending position. MOLLY'S SHIP stalked three wide and folded. OBVIOUSLY TUESDAY showed the way from the inside until overwhelmed during the run through the furlong grounds. WARRIOR UP reserved within range two wide for the opening three-quarters, had no stretch response. TAPITDAR saved ground and was never in contention.
