Footnotes

JOLIENNE vied for control while being rated three wide until the quarter pole, had the rider sneak a peek back at ELUSIVE JOZI before being set down entering the stretch, fell back by a sliver by the eighth pole, staged a good comeback despite drifting out to reclaim the lead in deep stretch, then went on to win the bob at the end. ELUSIVE JOZI sat patiently parked in the four path around the turn, responded positively when given her cue at the top of the stretch, fought her way to a very small advantage by the end of the furlong grounds, reluctantly gave it up while drifting outward, went head to head the rest of the way with top one and lost the bob. CAT FERRAD came out at the start, making contact with the nearest opponent, moved up to gain the early advantage, vied with top one from the two path around the bend, fell back slightly despite asked for some run approaching the quarter pole, weakened steadily in the lane. ROUGH WINTER brushed after start, raced along the outside and mustered up a mild response to improve position. SANTORINI MOON made light contact with ROUGH WINTER a couple of jumps out of the starting gate, was along the rail for much of the journey down the backstretch, but primarily two wide during the run around the bend, folded. SANSANNAH brushed at the break, saved ground and faltered. BULLET BABY three wide entering the turn, was five wide exiting it, offered no serious bids.
