Footnotes

COLOR BLIND contently rode the pocket tracking the front runners, was put to encouragement, angling outward at the five-sixteenths pole, made a bid in earnest three wide and between rivals, was driven to a clear advantage during the ensuing furlong, kicked well clear leaving the eighth pole, crossing the wire being hand urged. STOCK FUND off the inside, was put to a drive before reaching the half mile pole, came four wide into the stretch and was up for the place. DREAMING OF CARA unhurried for the opening three-quarters, launched a good rail rally to secure the show. CLEVER SPIRIT urged four wide into the stretch, flattened out. SALLY'S DREAM stalked the pacesetter from the two path, moved up to issue a challenge between rivals approaching the quarter pole, kept up the pressure for an additional furlong then weakened. MY JOPIA underwent a three wide pursuit and tired. AT THE PALACE broke running, quickly established control and darted over to the inside, was rated on a loosely-contested and under a firm hold until midpoint on the turn, was asked for some run when coming under assault soon afterwards, offered some resistance before yielding, tired steadily thereafter. SIMPLE RULES sat in midpack and had no rally. SILVER PRIZE raced along the outside and was no menace. INNER JOY was through after going six furlongs. DESERT BLISS four wide departing the backstretch, folded. SWEET GINGER was never in contention.
