Footnotes

BERNARDINI raced close up outside while in hand, was sent after pacesetter WANDERIN BOY midway on the second turn, collared that rival entering the stretch, quickly drew clear from that rival and galloped away under wraps. WANDERIN BOY was hustled to the front, set the pace while well away from the inner railing, had no answer for the winner turning for home and stayed on to best the others. ANDROMEDA'S HERO was urged along early, was hard ridden around the second turn and had no response. DYLAN THOMAS (IRE) was urged along to keep up early but dropped back along the inside and tired.
