Footnotes

ARTIE LUVSTO PARTY off a tad slowly, rushed up to assume a forward position under his own power, patiently tracked the front runners from the inside under a firm hold until approaching the five-sixteenths pole, angled out, splitting rivals prior to the stretch drive, took off after being given rein in upper stretch, drew off to a commanding advantage before being confidently handled during the final sixteenth. ROCKY FORTUNE lunged at the break, was unhurried during the early stages, powered past rivals with a four to five wide sweep around the turn, without ever being asked for speed, continued onward from the five path at the five-sixteenths pole to loom boldly nearing the head of the stretch, was called upon a response for the first time after settling into the lane, proved no match for the top one, but was kept together well enough to earn the place. MOODY MAJESTY bumped just after the start, was outrun down the backstretch, advanced steadily in a forward direction departing the half mile pole, angled outward to draft behind the runner up into the stretch, tipped out an additional path after being straightened away and came home willingly down the outside of the strip en route for show honors. STEPHEN'S REVENGE slow to settle into stride, was urged along from midway on the backstretch, swung wide into the stretch and improved position mainly past weak and tired ones. MARVOLO four wide at the nine-sixteenths pole, was asked for a response at the quarter pole, but failed to deliver a solid stretch offering. RUDY RUDY RUDY stumbled at the start, went on to take charge early, carved the pace from the two path until upper stretch and gave way. MAZARA DEL VALLO three wide at the nine-sixteenths pole, was through after completing three-quarters. LOCAL LEGACY along the outside, was through after going six furlongs. COOKS FOREST bobbed at the start, steadied behind rivals around the five-eighths pole, took the overland route around the turn and tired. HAYA'S BOY bumped between rivals at the start, faltered after a half.
