HOPPY DO disputed the pace as the widest of a threesome from the three path, doing so while being lightly hand urged, took over the lead basically under his own power after the half had been completed, was almost at the three-sixteenths pole before getting set down, drew well clear, crossing the wire under a strong hand drive. HARLEY departed the backstretch three wide, bumped with TAPE IT while swinging five wide into upper stretch, rallied for the place, while never posing a danger to the winner. EGO FRIENDLY well off the rail throughout, commenced the stretch from the six path, mustered up a response to grab the show award. INDIGENE CHARM briefly put along the inside, stalked the three-ply pace dispute from the two path during the run around the bend, was already under encouragement coming four wide into the lane, lacked the needed response. MR RODRIGUEZ along the inside, was the innermost of a group of three fighting for the lead, needed to be driving by midpoint on the turn to stay in the battle, fell back slightly anyway and even more so once into the stretch. TAPE IT in the two and heavily roused by the three-eighths pole, bumped with runner up while coming four wide into the lane, made no impact. DENN PIPER rode the rail until about the quarter pole, was put four wide at the top of the lane, had no offering. STREETS OF FIRE vied for command while between rivals on the turn and gave way. HAMME DANCER off the inside until the quarter pole, was outrun.
