Footnotes

CINCO DE MAYO MIO tracked the leader from close range early on, availed of an opportunity to make a middle inside move under light urging when the pace setter stayed wide into the turn, took over midway near the five-sixteenths, shook off the challenge of that same aforementioned rival near the eighth pole and edged clear being kept busy under a drive. EMILY ALLSTAR settled towards the rear under reserve, moved just off the inside around the turn, came under a long drive commencing near the midway point and displayed good late energy rallying belatedly to procure the place nearing the finish. DUST AND DIAMONDS went to the front shortly after the break, set the pace while in reserve, had the rider apply a snug hold as she appeared to want to get out in the turn, continued nearly five wide around the turn, lost the lead midway on the turn, came under a ride at the quarter pole and fought on nearing the final eighth before tiring to the show spot in the late stages. TACONIC VICTORY taken in hand after the start and allowed to settle while trailing early on, was roused midway on the turn and made a mild bid passed tiring rivals. TAP FOR LUCK tracked the front from midpack, took the overland route around the turn and faltered. HONEST GOLD coaxed along early on, saved ground throughout and offered no response.
