PURE SENSATION got away sharply, cut the pace from the inside, had the pilot switch over to some light hand urging as the opening fraction was being set, was well in front when asked for run past the eighth pole and stayed so afterwards. FLAT JACK stumbled at the start, chased the winner from the two path on the turn, proved no match. MENDOCINO JOE was tucked along the rail before reaching the end of the backstretch, cut the corner having been put to a hard drive to no avail. NICHE underwent a three wide pursuit, folded. FLYING JOE raced from off the inside, with the rider applying a snug grip on the left side for much of the way around it, failed to menace. DYNAMIC CHIME always outrun, swung three wide into the lane with little to offer.
