Footnotes

MUNITION outrun for three quarters, charged with a strong late rush down the center course to take charge and draw clear. CLASSIC IMPACT had a good finish outside to take the place. CHEETAH TRAIL raced three wide and came home willingly. CONDUCT OF HONOUR set the pace off the inside and was outfinished during the final furlong. TRIPPIN UP chased the pacesetter until midstretch and weakened. SWIFT STRIKE took the inside route, was checked entering and leaving the turn, cut the corner while commencing his rally, gained willingly while put to strong right handed encouragement, then lugged inward deep stretch, losing his action and all chance in the process. SENOR ENRICO well placed, loomed a prominent factor at the eighth pole, then was buried behind traffic from that point on, losing any opportunity. PAISANO CREEK steadied early during the run around the second bend, found himself caught behind traffic after turning for home, steadied and altered course in the vicinity of three-sixteenths pole, was straightened away quickly, but lacked a solid response thereafter. MOORE MILES was through after going six furlongs. ELDER SKATESMAN was outrun.
