Footnotes

SILENT THUNDER raced along the inside, put away a pair of rivals in two separate duels during the opening half, then drew off. ONE SMOKIN CAT rode the rail until the five-sixteenths marker, got angled out three wide into the stretch, mustered up enough of a response under strong handling to procure the place while never posing a threat to the top one. FOGGY ROAD three wide departing the backstretch, rushed up to take over the role of primary pursuer, got engaged in an abbreviated tussle with the winner, was shaken off then got outfinished for second. INDIGENE CHARM saved ground and was outrun. KELTIC FIGHTER well off the inside throughout, swung five wide into the stretch, had no offering. G W'S HAMMER stacked five wide at the three-eighths pole, folded. DAN THE IRISHMAN raced along the outside and was outrun. FAIRY SNOW stacked four wide midway on the turn, tired. NEVER THE END went at it head to head with the winner from off the inside for a good portion of the way down the backstretch, fell back steadily throughout the run around the bend, lost his action turning for home, got eased,lightly jogging across the wire for the final check, finishing far behind the others.
