Footnotes

INCHCAPE three wide on the opening bend, was closer to the rail down the backstretch and around the far turn as well, was given his cue and proceeded to get angled outward leaving the five-sixteenths pole, settled into the four path a furlong later, began to gobble up real estate, continued on resolutely, wearing down the runner up about two jumps prior to the wire. BOSS MAN away well from the starting gate, vied for command during the initial stages from off the inside, was sent over to the rail after entering the backstretch, had VIVA LAD draw directly alongside as three-quarters was being completed, with SECRETIVE making it a three-way dispute a sixteenth down the road, got let in response to the stern test, put away VIVA LAD by midstretch, then the show horse shortly afterwards, dug in with good determination only to get caught in the final stages. SECRETIVE reserved from off the inside for nearly a half, ranged up with a three wide run around the far turn, disputed the pace as the widest of a threesome from the five-sixteenths marker to midstretch, got turned back and steadily weakened. VIVA LAD strung out three wide on the first turn, tucked closer to the rail down the backstretch, picked up interest upon entering the second bend and reached even terms with the second place finisher at the midway point, had SECRETIVE arrive on the scene shortly afterwards, was set down vying for command from between rivals from that juncture until midlane before backing away. WAYNESBOROUGH along the inside route until midway down the backstretch, got put to a prolonged drive, failed to make any impact. JUST FOOLIN AROUND saved ground throughout. MASTER JORDAN stumbled badly at the start and as a result lost the rider. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the start of the race before the event was made official.
