GREAT EMPEROR unhurried during the opening stages, advanced along the inside into contention when ready, angled outward a bit turning for home, was continuing his forward progress, when he was forced to check when the runner up lugged inward in the vicinity of the eighth pole, altered course to the middle of the track for the necessary clearance and settling back into stride, overhauled that foe and edged clear under good handling. LAW N DORA took the inside route, swung off the rail nearing the top of the stretch, took charge after entering the furlong grounds, lugged in a bit, then was outfinished. DEFRIZZ within striking distance while wide, held well to secure show honors. ALRIGHT NOW on the lead soon after the start, set the pace for a half and gave way. BAR HARBOR chased for a half while travelling in the three path, folded. MERLIN CIRCLE pressed the pacesetter for a half before fading from view.
