Footnotes

ADJACENT bumped after the start, sat reserved along the outside for nearly three-quarters, was asked to pick up the pace coming to the head of the stretch, altered course outward a couple of paths for optimal racing clearance in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, kicked in once in place, charged down the outside of the course with good energy, collared the leader in deep stretch and edged clear. ALPHA CENTAURI was bumped after the start, was unhurried while under a firm hold, angled four wide commencing to rally, then came home with good energy to garner the place. DEANAALLEN'SKITTEN contently stalked the leader from the outside, was kept on hold until nearing the three-sixteenths pole, gained readily on the front runner having now been let out a notch, went by just past the eighth pole, left the sixteenth pole with a comfortable advantage, but got caught by the top pair. YESTERDAY mildly urged to the front leaving the gate, was switched over to rating tactics once sufficiently in control, showed the way on a loosely-contested lead along the inside until the quarter pole, was let out a notch turning for home, came under assault a sixteenth later, relinquished by midstretch and steadily weakened thereafter. PERFECT BERRY took the inside route, attempted to squeeze out at the half mile pole, but was denied when the top one stubbornly held her ground, steadily worked her way contention during the run around the bend, cut the corner, scooting past those rivals who had chosen a wider route into the lane to further improve her position, but could not sustain the bid during the last eighth. OSTENSIBLY eased back during the early stages, saved ground until the quarter pole, failed to fire after being called upon in upper stretch. WILD BANSHEE was through after completing three-quarters. HOLY PLACE well placed along the inside, folded. MARCH MISCHIEF bumped after the start, was outrun. SUPAH JALENE was never in contention.
