Footnotes

With the starting gate extending outward from the extreme fence, FLORAL ROMANCE was coaxed along while taking the two path around the turn, responded positively when asked to give a little more during the initial portion of the stretch drive to reach a contending position by the eighth pole, idled behind the front runners for another sixteenth bidding time, espied a developing window of opportunity to angle outward and split rivals in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, went for it and did so, out fought a pair in the last seventy yards from between them to prove best. VACATIONING patiently took the inside route until the quarter pole, got angled out sharply three wide entering the stretch and was called upon, rallied together with the eventual winner making her way from upper to midstretch, continued onward, fought willingly with another pair throughout most of the final sixteenth en route for the place. DAWN GLORY (GB) kept a watchful on the loosely-pressed leader while being rated along in the pocket, angled outward at the five-sixteenths pole and bid in earnest soon afterwards, forged to a narrow lead by the eighth pole, but with another pair in hot pursuit, got hooked up by each of them a sixteenth down the road, held on to the lead for a little while longer then yielded. WITCH WAY NORTH grabbed command soon after leaving the starting gate and led the field from the outer half of the turf course onto to its inner half, tucked along the rail before reaching the end of the backstretch, set the two initial splits facing only token resistance, came under much more a few strides before arriving at the quarter pole and got let out just as DAWN GLORY was issuing her challenge, relinquished during the run through the furlong grounds then weakened steadily thereafter. HILDA'S LEGACY three wide departing the backstretch, was under some encouragement before reaching the crest of the turn, had no rally. BIRD FU off to a sluggish beginning, cut the corner into the stretch, angled outward shortly afterwards, failed to menace. MISS CONCEPTION fractious behind the starting gate, departed the backstretch from the four path, was through after going a half. YATTASMOKEM raced along the outside and was outrun. COUNTESS THEODORA saved ground and was never in contention.

LADY HALITE accompanied the pacesetter from the two path for just over a half and tired.
