Footnotes

WICKED STRONG departed the backstretch from the three path, contested the pace as the widest of a trio until past the five-sixteenths pole, won an abbreviated duel with ENDOWMENT MANAGER to lead the field into the stretch, got put to a drive, held sway, kept to the task at hand. COOL SAMURAI got checked avoiding an incoming ENDOWMENT MANAGER as the field was sent on its way, reacted rankly thereafter for the next few strides before settling down, launched a sustained run from the two path on the turn under hand encouragement from the pilot, to reach a good striking position by the quarter pole, got taken in hand prior to spinning three wide into the stretch as BOURBON SENSE was swinging outward at the same time, kicked into his best stride shortly afterwards, forged on ahead with good courage to procure the place. BOURBON SENSE vied for command during the opening stages, was put to a firm hold and successfully eased back once ENDOWMENT MANAGER burst upon the scene, contently tracked the front runners from the pocket, got angled outward entering the stretch, almost making contact with the runner up, remained a prominent factor for another furlong then flattened out. MISCHIEVIOUSLY four wide midpoint on the turn, rallied into a contending position from upper to midstretch, failed to sustain the move and had to settle for the last major check. AWAY GAME was uninspired despite given some early motivation down the backstretch, was along the inside route and under a drive by the three-eighths pole, made no impact. GOODNEWSISONONEWS swung five wide into the stretch and mustered up a mild response to mainly improve position. TOURIST within range from the two path, had no rally. ENDOWMENT MANAGER came in sharply at the start and was grabbed hold, split rivals to take over the lead, got guided over to the rail nearing the end of the backstretch, was unable to fend off the winner's challenge as six furlongs was being completed, faltered. TAP TO THE STREET off to a sluggish beginning, saved ground while being outrun. MONOPOLIST disputed the pace from between rivals from the top of the bend to the five-sixteenths pole and gave way.
