Footnotes

ROYAL DELTA away in good order, was allowed to settle into stride down the backstretch, was guided into the three path departing the half mile pole, galloped into contention, displaying a touch of greenness in the process, encountered a wall of rivals spread out four deep, reacted kindly to the solid hold put to her by the rider, bided time behind the traffic, dove to a newly-created opening along the four path coming to the five-sixteenths pole, was forced to swing out an additional path turning for home, cruised to the front, being asked for the barest amount of speed, then proceeded to draw off to an authoritative victory while being ridden out to the finish line. STATUS PENDING stalked three wide, and held well to procure the place. BERNARDETTE strung out four wide at the three-eighths pole, came home willingly enough for the show. CARRIETTA saved ground prior to improving position during the stretch drive. GRACE ALLEY broke running, but was eased back to assume the role of stalker, prompted the leader between rivals until upper stretch and folded. RUNNINGLIKEANANGEL tracked from the inside and tired. FLOWERMING was never involved. GHARBIAH positioned five wide at the nine-sixteenths pole, gave way after going a half. J C'S QUEEN vied in hand along the inside with two or more rivals at a time throughout for a half and wilted.
