JAKE THE CAT speed to duel early, shook free from inside in the stretch, had a clear from the rail and held sway in he final sixteenth under good handling. SALT FLATS had good position while never far back, boxed in around the turn, rallied when clear and drifted in a bit through the stretch. IT'S A FALLACY chased winner to the stretch, was in tight very late but had no bid when clear. MUDD TRACKER trailed to the stretch, raced well off rail into the drive and moved up seven wide. SMART REASON bobbed and stumbled at the start, raced evenly with no response. REGALLY CLEAR raced four wide throughout and faded into the stretch. JUSTICE EXPRESS dueled from between horses early and dropped back readily.
