Footnotes

RUM N TING was unhurried early while saving ground, rallied on the turn and got through along the rail, drew off through the stretch under firm handling. BLUE MAN TOO stalked the pace while never far back, rallied on the turn and duled for the lead, could not go with the winner but was second best. MUTHBAT was void of early speed, improved position in the stretch but was no factor. ROCH LATRELLI set the pace with good early speed, faltered and faded. NICKEL HIDE flashed brief speed before stopping. HAL'S PAL was off slowly and bore in at the start, was no factor.
