Footnotes

HELLO FRANKIE pulled his way along to press the pace on the outside down the backstretch around the turn, took a short lead in midstretch and gradually drew clear in the final furlong. MUCHO MACHO MARK sped to the early lead, set the pace inside the winner down the backstretch and around the turn, resisted when challenged at the top of the lane, could not match strides with the winner but was clearly second best. JULES JOURNEY broke slowly and awkwardly, was ridden along to move up between horses on the backstretch, moved to a contending position off the rail around the turn, but weakened through the lane while drifting out. STAUFFENBERG chased on the inside throughout the journey and failed to make an impact in the lane. V. C. ALI MAC chased the pace on the outside and gave way in the stretch.
