ALPINE YODEL had the best speed, set all the pace, was off the rail on the second turn, drifted out slightly into the stretch but responded gamely to steady urging and was getting away again in the late stages. APPLAUD DUBAI was content to chased the pace, offered her best bid inside on the second turn after being roused at the three eighths but could not make an impact while second best. TEACHER'S RULE bobbled slightly at the start then had to check off the winner's heels into the first turn, raced closest to the winner to the second turn but weakened after six furlongs. STARSTREAM tracked the pace to the second turn, was three then four wide to the stretch but failed to offer a late response. NAMIRAH was not a factor.
