Footnotes

WOODFORD PRINCESS raced in hand early but well within striking distance, took back between horses entering the backstretch and remained unhurried to the second turn, circled the leaders with a quick bid into the lane, drew clear in the upper stretch and held driving. SISTER MARY HUGH trailed early, advanced inside on the second turn to reach serious contention at the head of the lane, raced blocked from the three sixteenths pole to the furlong grounds, then got clear too late but finished steadily. FORTUNATE CHANCE stalked the pace from the outset, checked from between rivals at the three eighths pole but remained in serious contention, swung out for the drive but hung in the lane. STRETCH VELVET set the pace from the inside to the stretch and slackened. NLOTSABUTTER was wide to the backstretch while moving up to challenge STRETCH VELVET, continued to prompt that rival until nearing the stretch then had little left.
