Footnotes

ANGEL GIFT broke cleanly and settled in just off ERICA'S SMILE and well in hand, advanced under her own courage on the second turn to be challenging for command two wide at the head of the lane, took command and quickly drew clear then was under intermittent urging to the line while never seriously threatened. LINDSAY JEAN was never too far back, offered her best bid three wide nearing the lane but proved no match for the winner in the lane. ERICA'S SMILE set all of the pace unchallenged to the stretch but gave way readily once headed. AUNT SOPHIE raced unhurried from the rail early, shifted three wide for the second turn but could pass only tiring horses. AMERICAN CZARINA was never a factor. MY FIRST LADY took back early while three wide on the second turn, dropped inside on the second turn but failed to threaten. DISPERSED REWARD was forwardly placed early but dropped back steadily once on the backstretch.
