Footnotes

RAINIERO (CHI) was in no hurry for the first mile and a half then quickly got into contention in the final turn caught WINNING VOW after the last jump and won driving. WINNING VOW trailed for a mile, then made steady progress on the back straight, rallied in the top turn, had the advantage jumping the last but could not hold off the winner. MISCHIEF was never far off the pace, was right there jumping the last but was no match for the other two. DUGAN ran evenly and was no threat. BRAVE PROSPECT was no factor here. RED LETTER DAY was through after a mile and a half. CUSE had early speed, fell back, no factor. GENERAL ROANOKE through after a mile, fell back and lost touch with the field. LAKE PLACID had command for two miles and a quarter and then was wide on the final turn and pulled up abruptly at the final jump.
