Footnotes

MY PHILLY sprinted to the lead from the break, opened a commanding margin on the backstretch and just lasted under stout pressure. FRONTIER FRANNY tracked the pacesetter racing three wide in second flight, came around foes to gain striking position nearing the lane, closed well late and just missed. TENS HOLY SPIRIT, bumped at the start, was righted to track the pace inside foes, was steadied in close quarters entering the far turn, switched out nearing the lane and finished evenly late. V'VILLE LADY was allowed to settle early and passed some tiring rivals in the lane. SECRET LIES tracked the pace between foes but couldn't produce a closing bid. SALTY ATTRACTION broke sharply, was held up tracking the leaders from the outside, but lacked any late response. SHEIKH AND AWE broke out, TENS HOLY SPIRIT at the start and never gained contention. RADIANT AVIE was caught four wide racing into the first turn chasing the pacesetter and was through after a half.
