TEZ AZADI sped to the fore along the rail racing into the first turn to dictate the tempo, shook clear approaching the far turn and steadily widened his advantage while being kept to pressure. O. G. HUNTER was reserved along the inside in the opening stages, angled out on the backstretch, swung five wide entering the far turn and prevailed for second in late stages while no threat to the winner. SECRETPORT was settled off the inside in the opening half, raced four wide between foes on the half but had no final response. SILENT PREACHER angled to the rail to track the leaders in second flight but couldn't produce the needed closing bid. BORN RUNNING tracked the leaders off the inside but faded after a half. B. B. HILL stalked outside the pacesetter to the backstretch, then faded steadily from contention leaving the far turn.
