Footnotes

SECTION F, bumped at the start, secured a stalking position just off the first flight while a bit rank under restraint racing to the backstretch, continued in that path to upper stretch, shifted outside a tiring rival, then was held up racing past the furlong marker while awaiting an opening angled inside the leader in the final sixteenth and just edged that foe on the wire under steady handling. HAITIAN was reserved for a half, angled outside foes on the backstretch while commencing his rally, circled foes four wide on the far turn to challenge, gained brief command leaving the furlong marker but couldn't contain the winner. SARAHS SON, allowed to settle near the inside for six furlongs, angled out to split foes four deep in upper stretch and continued well in a belated effort. PLATINUM DEVIL broke in, bumped SECTION F, was righted to track just outside that foe as part of the second flight, continued in hand while momentarily waiting an opening leaving the far turn, was fanned four wide while lodging his bid in upper stretch but was outfinished. CRIMSON VIEW angled inwards while securing the lead from the break, dictated the pace along the rail to upper stretch, then gave way once headed in the drive. KENTUCKY MILE raced unhurried outside foes for a half, swung five wide racing into upper stretch but had no late response. MATT N MITCH saved ground to the backstretch, shifted out to commence a three wide entering the far turn but flattened out leaving midstretch. GRAND DIMANCHE angled inwards to join a rival on the pace racing to the first turn, pressed that foe to the second bend and gave way.
