Footnotes

BROTHER O MINE was sent clear from the break, opened a commanding margin and held sway throughout while being kept to the task. COAL FIRE was allowed to settle, angled inside, saved ground to upper stretch while gathering momentum and continued along the inside to be up for second. CLASSIC TANAGER chased the pacesetter along the inside to the bend but lacked the needed closing response. DIXIE LUC POWER, cut off and forced to steady at the start, was collected and steadily improved his position racing into the lane. ABIT O IRISH veered out at the start, was righted to chase the pacesetter from the outside but dropped out nearing upper stretch. TURTLE MOUNTAIN never seriously menaced. STRUM BUM ducked out at the start impeding a rival, flashed brief pace in the opening quarter but was through after a half.
