Footnotes

SUSYS' LIL LISTO was sent to the lead inside foes, dictated the pace along the rail, forged clear midway through the turn, then widened his advantage while being kept to the task. PATRICK'S DAY joined the pace outside the winner, soon proved no match for that rival but continued well enough to secure second. WILLY WOMPUS tracked the leaders between foes racing to the bend, swung out nearing upper stretch and just missed second. TEX TUMBLEWEED tracked the leaders five wide racing to the turn and weakened after a half. GOOD MORNING PETE was caught four wide between foes racing to the turn, then continued evenly to late stages. FIFTH PAGE, unhurried along the inside early, never seriously menaced. MINNESOTA BOUND flashed brief pace between foes and gave way after three furlongs. PICKSIX POWER was never a factor. WHY NOT MINOT showed little. JUST JOSH'N was through early. UPTON ALLEY trailed.
