B B'S DARLING joined the pace along the rail from the break, dueled for command into upper stretch, gained a clear lead between calls and just held LIGHTNING ATTITUDE under pressure. The latter stalked just off the leaders on the backstretch, bid three deep racing into upper stretch and was gaining late. DON'T TELL TINA vied for command between foes from the outset, pressed the winner into the bend, then weakened between foes in upper stretch. SEENEMONNA T. V., allowed to settle in early stages, saved some ground racing to upper stretch while drawing into contention but offered no closing response. MISS CECILIA was a brief factor tracking the pace four wide on the backstretch but gave way abruptly after three furlongs. LADYONALERT hopped at the start and lost her rider.
