Footnotes

COY CHAI broke sharply, forced the pace outside foes racing to the bend, shifted over to the rail once gaining a clear lead and just held his advantage under firm encouragement. JESTINTIME tracked the pace racing off the inside, made a steady, three wide bid to challenge entering upper stretch, lugged inwards leaving the furlong marker and proved only second best. PREMIER CABERNET, close up between foes in early stages, bid for command racing into upper stretch, was going a bit erratically late and weakened in the final furlong. TEXAS ROSE ducked inwards at the start impeding GLEEFUL JUDGE, shifted inwards again at the gap, tracked the pace along the inside to the turn and continued evenly to late stages. I'M L W never seriously menaced. GLEEFUL JUDGE, forced in at the start, never menaced thereafter. WHATASHOTZIE flashed brief pace between foes but gave way abruptly after a half.
