Footnotes

FOR RUBIES, lightly rated early while stalking the pace four wide, took over approaching the stretch, then won going away under hand urging. BROWN EYED BEAUTY, in hand inside early, swung out five wide leaving the turn, loomed solidly outside the winner but wasn't able to muster a late threat as second best. CANYONETTE contested the pace early outside of NEVER OUT, battled on about even terms until the stretch and weakened. MISS LACY SHEA, close up between foes early, settled in behind horses on the turn, angled five wide for the drive but lacked a response. NEVER OUT gained a slim lead inside early, dueled for almost a half and weakened. SATURDAY'S CHILD, in contention six wide on the backstretch, gave way on the turn, wasn't persevered with and was distanced.
