Footnotes

TAKE CHARGE LADY veered in at the start and bumped the side of the gate, went up soon after to stalk front-running FRENCH STAIN under light rating, raced three wide, moved to the front entering the second turn, drew clear into the upper stretch as the rider glanced back, quickly increased her advantage when ridden a bit, then was gathered up late as much the best. CHARMED GIFT settled inside early, moved up between foes three wide on the backstretch, followed the winner four abreast into the stretch, loomed a threat but wasn't a match late. ALLAMERICAN BERTIE, rated inside early, saved ground to the far turn, eased out to move three wide between horses at the five-sixteenths pole, angled five wide into the stretch but couldn't muster a serious response. FRENCH SATIN gained the lead early, raced near the inside, surrendered the advantage to the winner leaving the backstretch, was checked for several strides approaching the five-sixteenths when attempting to drift out, then weakened. JARAMAR RAIN, squeezed back a bit at the start, was taken in hand and maneuvered inside, swung out four or five wide for the drive but failed to challenge. REASON TO TALK tracked the leaders in a contending position five wide until the stretch and flattened out. SUMMER DELIGHT, outrun from the start and in behind rivals three or four wide, continued four or five wide into the stretch and never menaced.
